

Looking for a social media volunteer

Vacancy volunteer Social media NL/ENG

Are you passionate about capturing candid images of children? Do you have a flair for social media and want to make a difference in strengthening Holland International School as a brand? Join our school community as a Social Media Volunteer! We are looking for an enthusiastic parent or relative to help us share our school's inspiring stories with the world.

Role: Social Media Volunteer

Time Commitment: 2-4 hours spread across 2 days per week

Responsibilities:

- Capture candid moments of our students to showcase the vibrant life at our school.
- Create engaging posts for Instagram, LinkedIn, and Facebook, reflecting the values and proposition of our school and its activities.
- Verify the appropriateness of content before posting it on social media platforms. Ascertain images do not include children without consent for social media usage.
- Collaborate with our MarCom officer to brainstorm creative ideas and timelines for social media campaigns.
- Contribute approximately 2-4 hours per week; preferably spread over 2 parts of the day, one at the beginning and one at the end of the week.

We are looking for someone passionate about photography and storytelling, who has a basic understanding of social media platforms (Facebook, Instagram, and LinkedIn), is creative and has a keen eye for capturing captivating moments.

If you are excited about capturing the essence of learning and contributing to our school's online presence, we would love to hear from you! Please send us a message including a summary of your work experience (recruitment@hollandinternationalschool.sg)

If available, include some examples of your photography or social media work.

Thank you for considering this volunteer opportunity at our school. Together, let's showcase the magic of education and create a positive impact on our community!
